"Taps" - Of all the military bugle calls, none is so easily recognized or more apt to render emotion than the call Taps.
The melody is both eloquent and haunting and the history of its origin is interesting and somewhat clouded in controversy. In the British Army, a similar call known as Last Post has been sounded over soldiers' graves since 1885, but the use of Taps is unique with the United States military, since the call is sounded at funerals, wreath-laying and memorial services. (The following is one of the many verses set to the notes of music.)

*Thanks and praise, For our days,
'Neath the sun, 'Neath the stars, 'Neath the sky,
As we go, This we know, God is nigh.*

"Veterans Day Thought"

It is the soldier, not the reporter who has given us freedom of the press.

It is the soldier, not the poet who has given us freedom of speech.

It is the soldier, not the campus organizer who has given us freedom to demonstrate.

It is the soldier, not the lawyer who has given us the right to a fair trial.

It is the soldier, not the politician who has given us the right to vote. It is the soldier, who salutes the flag, who serves the country under the flag, and whose coffin is draped by the flag, because the soldier chose to defend the flag. The soldier asked,
"Why not with this freedom, can't we at least protect our flag?"

We are proud and thankful to live in America, the land of our freedom heritage. The first veterans of the United States of America were those patriots who fought courageously in the American Revolution, during the birth of our great nation, such as Samuel Kelso, the ancestor of Mr. Eula Mae Adams and Lynda Holmes, who served as a sergeant, lieutenant, and horseman from 1779-1782 and fought in the battles of Kings Mountain in Cowpens. Robert Bowen, the ancestor of Dale Holmes, fought in the Battle of Kings Mountain along with several brothers. He also served as a scout in the Battle of Point Pleasant. The Battle of Kings Mountain was the turning point of the American Revolution in the south.

Welcome... Sheriff Steve Cronic to our pulpit today. Sheriff Cronic, his wife, Kathy, and their son, Cody, worship at Lakewood Baptist Church where he also serves as a deacon. The Cronics also have a daughter, Melinda, who is married and lives in California. Give the Cronics a warm welcome at Flat Creek today!
